

On one of our visits to Mosawawa squatter camp, we found a mommy dog and her 4 puppies, about 3 months old, abandoned when their owner moved away and left them behind. She had to fend for herself and her puppies for so long and as a result, she was very frightened and bewildered. We managed to catch all the puppies, also scared and bewildered, but mommy ran away.

We didn't see her again, until one day, to our surprise, we found her at her abandoned shack, with another litter of five-week-old puppies. Fortunately we could corner her this time and mommy and her four puppies were taken into our care.

We placed the mommy dog and her puppies in the care of Samantha from Kitty & Puppy Haven, where she underwent serious rehabilitation before she trusted people again.
